

Affirmations for Networking Success

Edit and customize the affirmations below to make them your own.

Record these affirmations in your own voice. You can play inspirational background music to add to your experience. These will take about two minutes. Loop it several times if you can, to run for about ten minutes.

Affirmations work best first thing in the morning to set the tone of the day. You can also listen to them several times throughout the day.

While you listen to your recording, visualize successfully meeting the right people.

Enjoy!
